

DREAMS AND GOALS | THE STORY OF YOUR LIFE

LESSON NOTES

1. You can have _____ or you can have _____, but you're not going to have both.
2. When you write the story of your life, don't let anyone else hold the _____.
3. The wealthiest place in the world is the _____.
4. You're the one who is going to make a decision whether or not you're going to fulfill your _____.
5. You're going to be held accountable for what you were _____ to do on earth.
6. There is a direct link between _____ and success.
7. Forgiveness does not make the other person _____, it makes you _____.
8. When we refuse to _____, we stay trapped by the enemy.
9. Whatever you keep before your _____, that's what you're walking towards.
10. Somebody in need is waiting on the other side of _____.

ACTION STEPS

- Take a moment to write your own obituary, what would you want people to say about your life years from now?
- Who do you need to forgive? Make a point this month to forgive them, so that you can move forward into all God has called you to be.
- What do you need to let go of? Maybe like me, you need to get rid of some "things" that are holding you back and keeping you stuck in the past. Begin to declutter those things keeping you bound.
- Like the sick man laying by the pool, what could Jesus be asking you to "get up, take up your _____ and _____."

KEY: 1. excuses, results 2. pen 3. graveyard 4. assignment from God 5. called 6. organization 7. right, free 8. let go 9. eyes 10. your obedience